RE: C00330886
Mid-Year Report (6/30/2002)

Dear Michael:

As discussed via telephone with Damen on October 15 in your absence, and again with you on October 24, 2002 regarding the questions on our Mid-Year Report, with Sandy Bachman, we address your concerns as follows:

RE Holding and Mrs. RE Holding, as a couple, have each contributed $1000.00 toward the primary as allowed by law.

Mark D Kelley did not designate his 1/29/02 contribution of $1000.00 to the General Election, but it should be posted as such and will be requested to do so in writing.

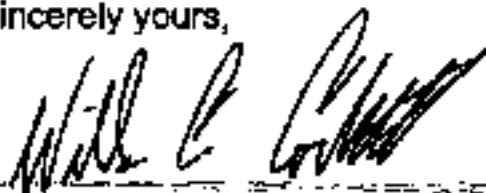

Patrick Joseph Petty did not designate his 3/22/02 contribution of $1000.00 to the General Election, but it should be posted as such and will be requested to do so in writing.

As Sandy indicated in her conversation also, although we should have picked up the discrepancies on Mr. Kelley and Mr. Petty on our report, we discovered well into 2002 that the limits had not been set when we converted to the Campaign 4 software upgrade, and we were relying on the system to flag these situations and this did not happen.

Regarding our Committee's contribution to Congressman Otter's campaign, this is purely a clerical error, the amounts should have been split between the between the Primary and General elections, and this will be done.

All changes will be reflected in our year-end report. If we have failed to address any of your concerns adequately, please feel free to contact me at 208-342-2667.

Sincerely yours,
